

AAll Reno-Sparks Investor Education Group Meeting

Date and Time: Thursday, February 7, 2019, 7 to 9 p.m.

Presentation Title and Synopsis:

Your 2019 Investing Opportunities

Wouldn't it be nice to KNOW what the 2019 markets are going to do? Up or down? How much and when? Dream on... nobody can tell you that.

But what you can learn at the February Reno-AAll meeting is what a major financial organization thinks is happening now in the US and abroad, and where today's trends might lead. How sound is the world economy? What sectors might blossom and why? Which countries have the best prospects? What portfolio allocation adjustments are sensible for 2019?

If you're an involved investor, you've got a lot of DATA swirling in your head all the time. GDP's. Profit growth rates. Political issues. Currency ratios. Earnings forecasts. Historical P/E ratios. Sovereign debt yields. We've all got mounds of data. The challenge is to put that data together so it's actionable INFORMATION.

That's what we're intending to provide this month... information. The major financial organization has done some heavy lifting for us. Their crystal ball may not prove right but they offer a coherent view of the data. Whether you take their recommendations or leave them, this presentation can spur you to better-informed actions this year.

Bring pens and note paper to capture the key ideas from this PowerPoint on-screen presentation.
