

AAll Reno-Sparks Investor Education Group Meeting

Date and Time: Thursday, January 8, 2014, 7 to 9 p.m.

Presentation Title and Synopsis:

Your Best Investment Idea for 2015

This is the best of times and the worst of times. We are full of hope for another winning year, but fearful we made mistakes twelve months back and will make bigger ones this January.

Where do we turn in uncertain times? Clearly... to the collective investing minds of northern Nevada [including yours!]. Let's come together at the January meeting and divine the best investment ideas for 2015. Shall this be a year of Third World resurgence? Will the S&P 500 swoon? Can oil stocks gush again?

This month we will also applaud those who made the best prophecies last January. They will be honored with a certificate suitable for bragging when the in-laws visit. Likewise, the list of 2015 Best Ideas we create this month will be tracked during the coming year and the most effective suggestions celebrated at our January meeting a year hence.

You homework for this meeting: pick ONE individual stock; mutual fund; Exchange Traded Fund or other publicly-priced security to recommend to your friends. You will have several minutes to describe your selection and sing its merits, like an IPO roadshow tout facing private equity barons.

You may already own your suggested security or it may be a transaction you are thinking about making. [Heck, if you won't eat your own cooking, how do you expect the rest of us to swallow it?] Though our contest has a one-year time horizon, we welcome ideas that have shorter or longer shelf life. You can always claim victory by saying your time horizon was, say, one month or five years, and no one can gainsay that.

If possible, bring copies of a data sheet or a research article that was useful in your decision making to hand out to other attendees so they can fully appreciate your creative analysis. [20 copies preferred].
