Presentation Title and Synopsis:

Buffett, Bogle and Bernstein

Last month we cut a broad swath through Investment-Guru-Land... reading and discussing wise ideas from more than a dozen mutual fund managers, investment advisors and market data analysts. At the August meeting, we'll concentration on three Guru Giants of our time.

We'll start with advice from the golden age of Warren Buffett... when he had more humility and fewer mega-deals. Seminal ideas from "Poor Warren's Almanac" will be included.

John Bogle, founder of Vanguard Group, is still kicking the financial industry's butt at age 84. His indictments of outsized fees charged by brokerage houses, insurance companies and actively-managed funds are detailed in ten popular books. Bogle is an iconoclast and a warrior for everyman.

Peter Bernstein is not so well known but he has an academic's mind and will ask some challenging questions about how we manage our portfolios.

Musicologists refer to the "3Bs" who made outsized contributions to their world. After this meeting you'll know more about the "3Bs" who changed investing in our time.

Speaker / Discussion Leader: Alan J. Liebman

Alan Liebman has been helping investors for three decades. He earned a bachelor's degree from Columbia University in physics and a doctorate from Yale in applied physics. Liebman worked in corporate R&D at Xerox Corporation and AT&T for 15 years.

In 1984, Liebman founded American Superior Company in suburban Chicago, a fee-only investment advisory firm. During 29 years of practice, Alan has published a stock market advisory letter, managed stock and bond assets of $50 million, led monthly meetings of AAll-Chicago groups, served as Vice President of the AAll-Chicago Board, and lectured across the country on investment topics.

In 2011, Liebman moved American Superior Company to Reno, Nevada where he continues to serve high-net-worth clients in six states and to help all investors make more informed choices.
