Presentation Title and Synopsis:

Gurus on Parade

Some people claim to have "secrets" to Wall Street success. They say their advice will raise your profits and cut your losses. They shout at you on TV; they tout books; they send you "Seven Secrets of Success" brochures. If any of them truly had the key to astounding success, would they share it with you for $59? Too often the "guru's secret" to wealth is to sell you books, seminars and newsletters!

Still, a few time-tested market observers can help you make better decisions and see the big picture. This month we'll study recent and historic advice from several of my favorite gurus, including John Bogel, the late Louis Rukeyser, John Train, Professor Werner DeBondt, Harold Evensky and David Dremen. Heck, we might even mention Warren Buffett, though he morphed into Barnum years ago.

Remember. If you're not completely satisfied with this meeting, we'll give you double your admission fee back.

Speaker / Discussion Leader: Alan J. Liebman
